DARTSMEN BEAT BASING BOWMEN

OLD Basing was aquiver with excitement last Thursday night, for the stout men in Lincoln green emerged in answer to a challenge from the darts players of the Bolton Arms.

With targets suitably arranged, the two opposing teams pitted their respective skills against each other, and in the closely-fought contest, the darts players eventually triumphed by three games to one.

The event took place as part of a promotion campaign organised by a local brewery, and the prize of six dozen light ales was divided between the two teams.

Eric Rodgers, captain of the darts team, described the contest as 'very enjoyable', and remarked on the closeness of the games, with each match being decided on the final double.

The captain of Old Basing Archers, Ron Selman, called it all 'a great success', and said everybody had 'thoroughly enjoyed it' and they 'were looking forward to a return match'.

OVERTON ARCHERS BEAT OLD BASING

OVERTON Archers defeated Old Basing Archers in a friendly match at Whitchurch on Sunday. Overton scored 2,620 points to Basing's 2,587.

Individual scores, Overton first—Roy Veal 728, Harold Light 647, Dave Hill 624, Peter Turner 621. Old Basing—Ron Salmon 688, Graham Evans 666, Brian Stainton 624, Brian Slayford 609.
